

Funeral Director/Embalmer
Manry-Jordan-Hodges Funeral Home (Blakely, GA)

Overview: Manry-Jordan-Hodges Funeral Home in Blakely, GA is looking for a licensed Funeral Director/Embalmer. This is a great opportunity to join Rollings Funeral Service and grow your career in death care.

The position will interact directly with our families during their time of need and will be responsible for maintaining a premier level of client satisfaction.

Responsibilities:

- Meeting with families to make funeral arrangements, present and explain service options and assist in coordinating plans to include traditional funeral services, cremation, and memorial services.
- Ensure all files and paperwork are completed in a timely manner and in accordance with state laws and regulations.
- Maintain and demonstrate high standards of professionalism at all times.
- Conduct and attend funeral services on a regular basis.
- Work on-call and first call as needed.
- Participate in community events, groups, and/or organizations.
- Perform all other related functions as assigned.

Requirements:

- Funeral Directors License or ability to reciprocate from another state
- 2+ years of experience

Benefits:

- Competitive salary
- No cost healthcare
- Available housing

At Rollings Funeral Service, we focus on people. Your community, our employees, and those that have come before to help build what we have today are all integral parts of what we do.

Please send a resume or questions to James Mullikin at james@rollingsfuneralservice.com.